

Architect - Moscow

Under the direction of the Project Leader, this role will be responsible for developing the design and technical aspects of a large scale commercial interiors project in Russia.

You must have the experience to be able to work independently on preparing design concepts, layouts and plans as well as sections and elevations whilst applying Russian building legislation, code and systems to your work. Skills in AutoCAD are essential as is fluency in both verbal and written English for this position.

We are looking for a Russian citizen with an architectural diploma or comparable work experience from an international architectural or interiors firm. Commercial office and Retail sector experience is preferred. Initially this position will be on a fixed termed basis for a period of 3 months in duration. Only applicants available from January 2010 please apply. To apply for this position, please submit a CV and a selection of A3 sized recently completed project examples.