

Interior Designer - Moscow

Working within a project team, this role will be assisting the development of the client's brief to create design solutions for a variety of commercial interior projects in Russia.

This role is responsible for undertaking initial design studies using visual communication software tools and contributing to the resolution of design issues. Experience in reviewing design solutions for building legislation and code compliance as well as preparing production information drawings is essential.

We are looking for a Russian citizen with an interior design diploma or comparable work experience from an international design firm. Commercial office sector experience is essential. Initially this position will be on a fixed termed basis for a period of 3 months in duration. Only applicants available from January 2010 should apply.